

PHASE 2: BUILDING AND FORMALIZING

Please select a moderator and a presenter and review the fieldguide pages 41-47.

While preparing the results, please take the checklist for the Dialogic Change Model, Phase 2 into account (see fieldguide pages 91-93).

Please develop a result-oriented process design to ensure Civil Society participation in Integrated Water Resource Management.

Decide in the group what kind of stakeholder dialogue process in IWRM you jointly plan to design.

TASK:

Please develop a roadmap in preparation of this stakeholder dialogue process.

EXPECTED RESULTS:

While preparing the results, please take the following into account:

1. The checklist for the Dialogic Change Model, phase 2 (see pages 91-93)
2. The stakeholder analysis from phase 1
3. Please make sure that your process design allows for the following:
  - a. Tangible outcomes
  - b. Knowledge building, solving problems
  - c. Minimum / maximum agreements among stakeholders
  - d. People feeling ownership, commitment, trust building, etc.
  - e. People getting to know each other better, people understanding each other's position
4. The sequence of actions you plan reflecting the above objectives?

60 minutes, 5 minutes short presentation of the highlights
